

Do you want to make a difference to someone's life?

We are in urgent need of volunteers to join our Contact Line Team.

You can give the time you can afford, to fit in around your other arrangements, which can be as little as 5 hours a month. You do not need to have any qualifications or previous experience. You do need to care about bereaved people and have a quiet room from which to make calls.

You will be working from home and attending a team meeting (in Beccles) every 6 weeks.

You are likely to find there is enormous satisfaction from knowing you make a positive difference to someone's life. Cruse Bereavement Care has been restoring hope to bereaved people for more than 50 years.
